

20 April 2015

Won a Bid to Serve Guangdong Welfare Lottery, China's Largest Provincial Lottery Market

China LotSynergy Holdings Limited (the "Company") is pleased to announce that Guangzhou San Huan Yong Xin Technology Company Limited ("San Huan"), a subsidiary of the Company, has successfully won a bid for Guangdong Welfare Lottery Administration Centre's "Betting Terminal Usage Rights and Services Procurement Project". In accordance with the project requirements, San Huan will provide Guangdong Welfare Lottery with 20,000 brand new lottery betting terminals, along with other related services, including terminal upgrading and maintenance. So far, this is the largest single terminal equipment procurement order in China's lottery industry.

Guangdong is the leading province in terms of national lottery sales, and Guangdong Welfare Lottery's sales have topped the provincial lottery market for seven consecutive years. In 2014, Welfare Lottery sales in Guangdong province exceeded RMB 20 billion to reach RMB 20.68 billion, marking the achievement of another meaningful milestone since it surpassed RMB 10 billion in sales in 2010, thus demonstrating its practical and innovative spirit. During the bidding process, Guangdong

20 April 2015

Welfare Lottery set ever higher standards and requirements on products, services and innovation. The awarding of the contract to San Huan, and its ability to meet the highest service standards of China's largest provincial lottery market, are of great significance to the Company's future developments in the computer-generated ticket games ("CTG") area.

The Company holds fully independent intellectual property rights over the new generation GDS688-VI lottery betting terminal used in the bidding process, which is autonomously controllable and reliably safe. The design of this product has been optimized with environmental friendly and energy efficient features, which ensures high performance while maintaining low energy consumption, earning it strong recognition from industry experts.

Company management believes that Guangdong Welfare Lottery epitomizes China Welfare Lottery's innovations in management and technology and that it is the Company's honour to provide products and services to Guangdong Welfare Lottery. Through the provision of mature and advanced products, as well as invaluable services, the Company will facilitate Guangdong Welfare Lottery in achieving new breakthroughs and developments.